To the Society of Gentlemen for the Encouragement of Arts in the different Provinces of America.

JOHN MORRIS, Gunflint-Cutter to his Majesty's Board of Ordnance, in the Kingdom of Ireland, is willing to come and establish that Branch in any of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, if properly encouraged for establishing such an useful Branch, whereon depends the Safety and Protection of his Majesty's Royal Person, his Dominions and Subjects in general. It has always been my Study to propagate such useful Arts, as tends to the Public Good, therefore I earnestly entreat your Con-

By the Earl of Halifax Packet, Capt. Jefferies, from Falmouth, we have the following Advices, viz.

M A D R I D, January 5.
THE Court has received the agreeable news from Mexico, that all is perfectly quiet there, and that there is not the least disturbance among the people, either on account of the expulsion of the Jesuits or any thing else.

Hague, Feb. 2. The frost is set in again since yesterday, which is very inconvenient, as it prevents all communication by water through the country.

Emmerick, in Westphalia, Feb. 4. The frost was severe from the beginning of last month, that travellers passed over the Rhine both on foot and horseback, and notwithstanding a thaw of three weeks, that river is not yet open: Though the ice was broke four different times, it fastened again. and by the rapidity of the current had in some places formed heaps thirty or forty feet high, so that the inhabitants are apprehensive of great inundations: At Keyserworth and Dusseldorp the waters have risen several feet, the river being still fast from the former place to Arnheim.

Paris, Feb. 5. They write from Corsica, that a Treaty of Commerce is on foot with the English, whereby they are to have an exclusive trade to that island for its whole produce of wine and oil.

Paris, Feb. 8. They write from Languedoc, that the winter has been as severe in that province as in the other parts of the kingdom: the cold being nearly equal to that of 1709. The Garonne and the Rhone were both frozen, and the river Sette was blocked up by the ice at its entrance into the sea, which was never known before.

It is given out here as matter of fact, that the Marquis de Brunoy, son of M. de Montmartel, has remitted 100,000 livres to the Intendant of Montauban, to be distributed among the poor in his generality. So generous an action cannot be made too public.

Warsaw, Feb. 17. To-morrow the grand Commission of the State will assemble. The subject of their deliberation is to be the renewal of all the treaties of peace concluded between the Republic and the Courts of Petersburg and Berlin: the Empress of Russia will still continue guarantee of all the rights and privileges of the Polish nation.

Helsingers, in Denmark, Feb. 22. The cold is set in again very severe in this country. The whole extent of our coast as far as Copenhagen is entirely frozen, infomuch that we can go on the ice full half a league without any danger.

Zierikzee, Feb. 25. The inhabitants of this city, and of the whole island of Schouwen, were thrown into the greatest consternation last Tuesday evening, by the sinking of the dyke between the Ouster Inlage and the small havre of Burfluis, thirty yards of which, on the sea-side, are thought irreparable.
All the workmen have been assembled, to fortify it as much as possible; and every possible measure is taking to preserve the island from a total inundation.

L O N D O N.

March 8. We hear there are letters arrived in town from France, which mention that upwards of forty thousand soldiers have surrounded Paris, to prevent any body coming out; but the reason has not yet transpired.

Yesterday John Wilkes, Esq; was admitted to the freedom of this city, in the Musicians company, in order to his being one of the candidates for the city of London, at the ensuing general election.

The election for the borough of Lancashire comes on next Monday se'nnight.

Sixty-four guineas were given this day at noon, to receive 100 guineas if John Wilkes, Esq; is chosen Member for the city of London at the ensuing general election.

A correspondent writes, "The conditions of Mr. W—'s pardon mentioned in the daily papers, are not true; for no proposals were made, or restraints laid on him, farther than a strict compliance with his own voluntary promises." Our correspondent adds, "Though Mr. W— may have been too incautious in some of his writings, I firmly believe, that such incaution arose merely from a deal for the honour and service of his country, and that few in this kingdom possess a larger share of real genuine patriotism than Mr. W—s."

NEW-YORK, MAY 12.

Extract of a Letter from Montreal, dated April 16.
Last Monday Night about 11 o'Clock, a Fire broke out in one of the upper Streets, about the Middle of this Town, occasioned by a lighted Candle being carried into the Stable of Moul. Gifford: The Flames took their Course from near St. Lawrence's Gate, and went through the Provost's, Mr. Grozier's, Jacobs, and the Black Sisters Nunnery, raging with such Violence, that in about two Hours, upwards of 80 Houses were consumed, and 107 Families dislodged; and 'tis thought, had it not been for the Chateau, which was flated, and by that Means stopped the Fury of the Flames, the whole Town would have been consumed. The Loss is not yet known, but I imagine it will amount to near 25,000l. Sterling.

Extracts from a Letter dated Turks-Island, March 23, 1768, from the Master of a Vessel belonging to this Port, to the Owner.

"This serves to acquaint you of my safe Arrival here from Salteruda, after staying there 41 Days for nothing. His Majesty's Ship the Scarborough commanded by Capt. Robert Gregory, arrived at Salteruda the 3d Instant, (March) and on Monday the 7th, the Brig Thomas, was boarded by the Cutter and Pinnace double manned, and armed, which took 453 Bags of Salt out of the Brig, and then went and took all the Salt from every Vessel at the Place, (that did not belong to his own Fleet.) He also took all the Salt we had raked the second raking, which I believe was about 800 Bushels.—To-morrow I shall make a Protest, (the Governor being not now at Home) and send it from North-Carolina. I propose to sail To-morrow Evening, as here is no Prospect of getting any Salt for three Weeks to come, and then uncertain, for one Shower of Rain would carry it all off.

Captain Elias Young, bound to Bermuda, sailed with me from Salteruda, and was one, who with many others, (of whom I shall send you a List with some Remarks) shared the same Fate with me. I hope you and all the Sufferers will be able to get well paid for your Salt. I am your's, &c.

JOURNAL OF REMARKS, &c.

TORTUGA, March 3, 1768.

At ten this Morning arrived here from Barbados, the Scarborough Man of War, Robert Gregory, Esq; Commander, with eight Sail of Vessels under his Convoy. Capt. John Roberts, was then ready to sail, waiting only for one Boat Load of Salt,—but was stopped till further Orders, and told by Capt. Gregory, that he should be obliged to take all the Salt and divide it among the Fleet under his Convoy. Capt. Gregory then sent his Lieut. on Shore, to acquaint all the Captains of Vessels, that all their Salt should be taken from them and divided among his Fleet, and to order that none of us or our People should presume to go any more into the Pond. On this we all desisted and came out.

About two o'Clock, Capt. Gregory, with one of the Masters under his Convoy, came on Shore himself and repeated to us the same Things.—We expostulated on the Hardship of being thus deprived of the Salt we had acquired by a long Continuance of very hard Labour and great Expence. He told us he could not help it, and after viewing the Pond, went on board. Soon after, a Signal being made, about a Dozen of us went on board the Scarborough to know his Orders. He told us his Orders were to take all our Salt, and keep our Vessels as long as he thought fit. I told him I was short of Provisions, and if detain'd much longer should do myself the Pleasure to wait on him for a Supply. He answer'd, he was short of Provision himself, and would not spare any. I told him if he took away my Salt I should use my best Endeavours to obtain Payment for it, as also for the Detention of the Vessel. Mr. Knowles (his first Lieutenant) ask'd me if I knew where I was, and if I was Spokesman for the Rest. I told him I knew I was on board his Majesty's Ship Scarborough, and that I spoke only for myself, my Vessel and Owner.—Capt. Gregory said he should act up to the Orders he had receiv'd from Admiral Pye, —told us he did not want us all, but that we might settle the Matter among ourselves, choose a Committee, and let him know our Determination. However, he forbid us from taking any of the Salt we had raked, and sent some of his Mariners to prevent it.

At 5 in the Afternoon we all met, and chose for a Committee 5 of our Number, viz. the Captains Thomas Griffiths, Elias Young, Joseph Kennicut, John Rocket and Ephraim Dean. We also agreed to pay no Convoy Money, as we had been so long without one. had no Prospect of getting a Quantity of Salt sufficient to defray the Expence, and tho't ourselves in no Danger from the Spaniards.

Friday Morning 7 o'Clock an Officer from Capt. Gregory came on board of the Brig Thomas, took the Names of the Master, Owner, and Vessel, where built and from, her Tonnage, Quantity of Salt on board, and where bound; also forbid my sailing without Orders from Capt. Gregory. At 9 o'Clock our Committee attended and had some Discourse with him,—Told him our Opinion that we had an undoubted Right to gather Salt without a Convoy, knew of no Act of Parliament or Treaty by which it was restricted, but if any such were in being, desired that he would make known and explain them, and we should strictly conform to them. His answer was, that he should act up to his Orders from Admiral Pye, &c. At 10 o'Clock several of us went up to the Pond and found they had not yet taken away any of the Salt we had left, but the Man I had left to take care of it and of our Necessaries, was retired to the Sea Side, being obliged to bring all our Things from the Pond, Capt. Gregory having threatened if he did not, to fire into the Tent, and to carry him on board the Scarborough. March 5, Saturday Morning, 7 o'Clock, sent for our Wheel Barrows and other Necessaries, lest they might be taken or destroyed by Capt. Gregory or some of his Convoy. At 9 o'Clock all the Masters in the Harbour had a Meeting and made a Subscription of 530l. Sterling, for the Prosecution of a Suit against Capt. Gregory, for his arbitrary Proceedings, Detention of the Vessels, and the threatened Seizure of our Property. At 10 o'Clock our People return'd with our Things from the Shore, and brought Word that the People of the Man of War, or his Convoy were unloading Capt. Roberts's Sloop and carrying the Salt on Shore. Capt. Young and some more Masters having walk'd up to the Pond to see whether their Salt was disturb'd or not, as they return'd saw Capt. Gregory and several Masters belonging to his Fleet going to the Pond, and soon after were overtaken by two Marines with a Message from Capt. Gregory, desiring that they would not come up again, for if they did, he should take particular Notice of them. March 7, Monday Morning 6 o'Clock, The Brig Thomas was boarded by the Man of War's Pinnace and Yawl double mann'd and arm'd. The first Lieutenant came on board and demanded the Salt I had in the Vessel. I desired to see his Orders, which he immediately shew'd me from Capt. Gregory. The Lieutenant then dispatched an Officer in the Yawl for the Sloop Patty, Capt. Peter Boyd Master, belonging to Hartford in Connecticut, James Caldwell and Daniel Goodwin of said Town Owners. Tho' there was a Man of War's Officer on board the Sloop, the said Master gave the Orders to Man the Boat, which way to row her, and cunn'd the Man at Helm, in bringing his Sloop along side the Brig to take my Salt.—Nothing would give me more Pleasure than making that Scoundrel pay for the Salt.—There are sufficient Witnesses to prove that he not only did this in taking my Salt, but did the like to several other Vessels, particularly to one belonging to his own Town, Thomas Goodwin Master, (who is going from hence to Montserrat, and I expect will get home in April or the beginning of May) They took from me 453 Bags of Salt, 3 Pecks each. The Boats belonging to the Convoy were all busy in helping to take the Salt from my Vessel and other Vessels in the Harbour, and putting it on board the Sloop Patty and another Sloop belonging to Rhode-Island, one White Master. March 8, Tuesday Afternoon 2 o'Clock, a Schooner of Piscataway, Capt. Riker, attempted to get away, but was brought back by the Man of War's Cutter. This Day they finish'd taking all the Salt from the Vessels in the Harbour, Capt. Thomas Goodwin's Sloop was carried to the Fleet, and the Salt, (the greatest Part of which he had bought for 1s. 6d. per Bushel) divided among them. March 9, Wednesday Afternoon 3 o'Clock, Capt. Griffiths, Young, Seymour, and myself waited on Capt. Gregory, to acquaint him of our being ready for the Sea. We were on board the Scarborough some time before we had the Honour of seeing him; at last the Lieutenant came and told us to go into the Cabin. When we enter'd, he said to us, What do you Want? I told him, a Receipt for the Salt his Officer had taken away. He said, If he has taken it all, that's a sufficient Receipt. I then ask'd him what he intended to do with the Salt at the Pond? He said, I have nothing further to do with you, you may sail whenever you think proper. He said the same to the 3 other Masters.

March 10, Thursday, This Day Capt. Sherman told me that Capt. Goodwin's Salt which had been taken from him and divided among the Fleet, was last Night brought back to him, and that this Day he began to receive it. March 11, Friday Morning 10 o'Clock, weigh'd and stood to Sea, in Company with 1 Brig, a Schooner, and 9 Sloops, all of which had been plunder'd of their Salt. The following is a List of the Masters Names, &c. who had their Salt taken away by Capt. Gregory, viz. John Marshall of New-York, 453 Bags, each 3 Pecks; left at the Pond about 750 Bushels. John Roberts of S. Carolina, about 150 Bushels taken from on board. Elias Young, James Seymour, John Wells, John Hodgson, John Robinson, Ed. King, and G. Gibbs, of Bermuda, from on board their Vessels and from the Pond. Capt. Sterry, James Alger, Capt. Sherman, Jos.

Kennicut, (Capt. Kennicut, the Escape) of Rh. Island, from on board their Vessels & from the Pond. Tho Goodwin of Hartford, Connecticut, from Do. Capt Riker, Capt. Gregory, of Piscataway, fr. Do. The following had their Salt taken only from the Pond. Thomas Griffiths, James Luther, Capt. Duncomb, and James Dill, of Bermuda.—John Rocket, Louisbourg.—Ephraim Dean, Halifax.—Capt. M. Coy, South-Carolina.

The following came in for the out Skirts.

Capt. Middleton, Lyburn, Bethel, Tucker, Young, Priddon, and Williams, of Bermuda.

Yesterday arrived the Ship Ellen Capt. Clark, from Bristol, and 7 Weeks and 3 Days from Milford Haven, but brings no News so late as we had by the Packet. He sailed in Company with the New Hope, Capt. Gifford of this Port, who may be hourly expected.

We are inform'd, that on Tuesday last, a Soldier under Confinement, and sentenced to be whipped, having found Means to procure a Musket, which he loaded with two Balls, applied the Muzzle to his Breast and fired it with his Foot, but in leaning back to do it, or perhaps starting at the Moment, the Balls only grazed along his Breast, and went thro' his Shoulder, so that he is not mortally wounded.

No late News by the Eastern Papers, except that there was a terrible Storm at Halifax on Friday the 11 of April, whereby the Town and Vessels there, receiv'd Damage to the Value of 3000 l. A Servant Lad is in Gaol there for giving his Masters Daughter several Blows with an Ax, and leaving her for Dead; but she is since likely to recover. Lord William Campbell, Governor of that Place, was daily expected. The Schooner Leopard, Church, and Sloop Sally, Blower, were arrived from Philadelphia At the last Supreme Court, on the 28th of April last, the Circuit Courts are appointed to be held as follow, viz.

At the Court-House for Orange-County, on Wednesday the first Day of June next.

At the Court-House for Dutchess-County, on Tuesday the seventh Day of June next.

At the Court-House for Ulster-County, on Tuesday the fourteenth Day of June next.

At Loenenburgh for the City and County of Albany, on Tuesday the 21st Day of June next.

At the House of Anthony Waters, for Richmond-County, on Tuesday the 28th Day of June next.

POETS CORNER.

MY MIND TO ME A KINGDOM IS.

AN OLD BALLAD.

My mind to me a kingdom is;
Such perfect joy therein I finde
As farre exceeds all earthly blisse,
That God or nature hath assignde:
Tho' much I want, that most would have,
Yet still my mind forbids to crave.
Content I live, this is my stay;
I seek no more than may suffice:
I presse to bear no haughtie sway;
Look what I lack my mind supplies.
Loe! thus I triumph like a king,
Content with that my mind doth bring.
I see how plentie surfeits oft,
And haſtie clymbers ſoonest fall:
I ſee that ſuch as ſit aloſt Miſhap doth threaten moſt of all:
Theſe get with toile, and get with ſcare:
Such cares my mind could never beare.
Nor princely pompe, nor welthie ſtore,
No force to winnie a victorie,
No wylie wit to ſalve a fore,
No ſhape to winne a lover's eye;
To none of theſe I yeeld as thrall,
For why, my mind deſpiſeth all.
Some have too much, yet ſtill they crave,
I little have, yet ſeek no more:
They are but poore, tho' much they have;
And I am rich with little ſtore:
They poore, I rich; they beg, I give;
They lacke, I lend; they pine, I give.
I laugh not at anothers loſſe,
I grudge not at anothers gaine;
No worldly wave my mind can toſſe,
I brooke that is anothers bane:
I ſeare no foe, nor fawne on friend;
I loth not life, nor dread mine end.
My welth is health, and perfeſt eaſe:
My conſcience clere my chiefe defence;
I never ſeek by brybes to pleaſe,
Nor by deſert to give offence:
Thus do I live, thus will I die;
Would all did ſo as well as I!

LETTERS from a FARMER in PENNSYLVANIA,

TO THE

BRITISH COLONIES.

THIS excellent Performance, which fully explains and unanswerably defends the Rights of the British Colonies, was reprinted upon the Suggestion of many of the Inhabitants, as well as the Printer's own Opinion, that it ought to be kept in every Family, and be thoroughly consider'd, understood, and taught to the rising Generation; to the End that the Principles of our happy Constitution may be universally known and established; that so these Colonies may never want Men to assert and maintain the Rights and Privileges of British Subjects.—Yet the Sale of these useful Pamphlets, has hitherto been very inconsiderable, so that they are like to be a great Loss to the Printer.—Unless his Townsmen will be so good as to prevent it by purchasing the Book.

SUPPLEMENT to the NEW-YORK JOURNAL, OR GENERAL ADVERTISER.—NUMB. 1323.

[T H U R S D A Y, M A Y 12, 1768.]

Friday last arrived here the Earl of Halifax Packet, Capt. Jefferies, in 7 weeks from Falmouth, by whom we have received the following Advices, viz.

L O N D O N, March 12.

Yesterday his Majesty went in state to the house of Peers, and gave the royal assent to twenty three public and private bills; after which his Majesty made the following most gracious SPEECH from the Throne.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Readiness with which you entered into the Views I recommended to you at the Opening of this Session, and the Assiduity with which you have applied yourselves to the Dispatch of the public Business, give me great Satisfaction. At the same Time, the affectionate Concern you have shewn for the Welfare of your Fellow Subjects, by the salutary Laws passed for their Relief in respect to the high Price of Provisions, cannot fail of securing to you their most grateful Regard.

"I have nothing new to communicate to you in relation to Foreign Affairs. The apparent Interests of the several Powers in Europe, as well as the express Assurance I have received from them, leave me no Room to doubt of their Disposition to preserve the general Tranquillity. And, on my Part, you may rest assured, that every Measure that is consistent with the Honour of my Crown, and the Rights of my Subjects, shall be steadily directed to that most salutary Purpose.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

"Your Cheerfulness in granting the necessary Supplies, and your Attention to the Ease of my good Subjects in the Manner of raising them, equally demand my Acknowledgment. I see, with Pleasure, that you have been able to prosecute your Plan for the Diminution of the national Debt, without laying any additional Burthen upon my People.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

"As the time limited by Law for the Expiration of this Parliament, now draws near, I have resolved forthwith to issue My Proclamation for dissolving it, and for calling a new Parliament. But I cannot do this, without having first returned you my Thanks, for the many signal Proofs you have given of the most affectionate Attachment to my Person, Family, and Government, the most faithful Attention to the Public Service, and the most earnest Zeal for the Preservation of Our excellent Constitution. When, by the vigorous Support which you gave me during the War, I have been enabled, under the Divine Providence, to restore to my People the Blessings of Peace, you continued to exert yourselves, with equal Alacrity and Steadiness, in pursuing every Measure that could contribute to the Maintenance of the Public Safety and Tranquillity; which you well understood could no otherwise be preserved, than by establishing, on a respectable Foundation, the Strength, the Credit, and the Commerce of the Nation. The large Supplies you have from Time to Time granted, and the wise Regulations you have made for these important Purposes, will, I am persuaded, be found to have been productive of the most beneficial Consequences.

"In the approaching Election of Representatives, I doubt not but my People will give me fresh Proofs of their Attachment to the true Interest of their Country; which I shall ever receive as the most acceptable Mark of their Affection to me. The Welfare of all my Subjects is the first Object. Nothing therefore has ever given me more real Concern, than to see any of them, in any Part of my Dominions, attempting to loosen those Bonds of Constitutional Subordination, so essential to the Welfare of the Whole. But it is with much Satisfaction that I now see them returning to a more just Sense of what their own Interest, no less than their Duty, indispensably requires of them; and thereby giving me the Prospect of continuing to reign over an happy, because an united People."

It is reported that a certain celebrated Person has lately written a very penitential Letter to a great Personage; and that in Consequence thereof, a free Pardon either has been, or will be made out, that the Penitent may offer himself a Candidate to represent a great City in Parliament.

In the Course of the last Session, 112 public and private Bills received the Royal Assent; among which were the following, viz.

The bill for granting to his Majesty a certain sum out of the sinking fund, and for applying certain sums remaining therein for the service of the present year.

The bill to raise a certain sum by loans on exchequer bills for the service of the present year.

The bill to raise 1,900,000*l.* by annuities and lottery, for the service of the present year.

The bill for redeeming the remainder of the joint stock of annuities, established in the third year of his Majesty's reign.

The bill to apply the sum granted for the pay and clothing of the militia for the service of the present year.

The bill for better paying, cleansing, and enlightening the city of London, and liberties thereof.

The bill for converting Gresham college, and the grounds thereto belonging, into an Excise-office.

The bill for licensing a playhouse in the city of Norwich.

The bill to amend, and render more effectual, in his Majesty's dominions in America, an act of this session for punishing mutiny and desertion.

The bill to continue several acts for better encouraging the whale fishery.

The bill for more easy and effectual recovery of the penalties and forfeitures inflicted by acts relating to the trade and revenue of the British colonies in America.

The bill for dissolving the marriage of Lord Bollingbroke.

The bill for dissolving the marriage of Charles Daly, Esq; with Anna-Statia Daly, his now wife; and to several bills relating to estates, &c.

March 10. A letter from Lancashire informs us, that the towns of Lancashire and Preston are almost destroyed by the mobs. General Burgeine was reduced to the necessity of fighting his way out of Preston sword in hand. Many poor souls have lost their legs and arms, and not a few their lives, in this display of the glorious liberty of Old England!

The election for Members for this city is appointed to come on next Wednesday, at Guildhall.

The Lords of the Treasury have appointed Lancelot Grave-Berry, Esq; Collector of the Customs of the port of Beaufort in North-Carolina.

'Tis conjectured, that the cause of the extraordinary procedure, of the city of Paris being surrounded by 40,000 men, is owing to some great treasonable crime like that of Damiens.

Yesterday many gentlemen at Lloyd's, and other coffee-houses near the Royal-Exchange, offered to give five, ten, and at last fifteen guineas, to as many as would accept of it, to have 100 guineas in return if John Wilks, Esq; should be chosen Member of Parliament to represent this city; for which, it's said, he intends to declare himself a candidate, having got a pardon.

A letter from Lancashire says, "To such a degree has faction raged here, that had all the ships in the adjoining river been men of war, and bombarded the town, the windows and doors of every individual house of both parties could not possibly appear in a more ruinous and shattered state. But at Preston the scene is still much worse, where last week an enraged unthinking mob (computed at about 3000) entirely demolished and levelled several good and genteel houses, together with the Popish chapel. In other places they have broke to pieces clocks, chests, chairs, & in short, all sorts of household furniture, dragged feather-beds into the open streets, ripped them up, and threw aloft the feathers; whereby great numbers of people in that neat and beautiful town are not only reduced to the last extremity, but also several have lost their lives, and others are dangerously wounded and maimed in opposing them. Such are the dire effects of the present modes of election. On the whole, it is very difficult to guess which party in Lancaster will, at the general election, prove victorious: at present they seem nearly on a par."

By letters from Paris an account is received of the death of the Queen of France. Her Majesty, who was the daughter of the late King Stanislaus of Poland, was born June 23, 1703, and married to his most Christian Majesty on September 5, 1725.

We are told from Skipton, that last Monday se'nnight a mob from Kildwick, Bradley, Sutton, &c. consisting of upwards of 400 men, assembled in the neighbourhood of Silsden under pretence of playing at football, but meeting with no antagonists, they proceeded to Silsden, where the behaved very irregularly, breaking windows, and treating many of the inhabitants in a shameful manner, sparing neither age nor sex.

Feb. 19. The write from Rome, that the King of the Sicilies, as heir of the House of Farnese, has laid claim to the Church and Convent of Jesus, occupied by the Jesuits in that City. The palace, with the church belonging to it, is one of the most superb buildings in Rome, and is always the residence of the General of the Order.

Letters from Leghorn, dated Jan. 23, say, "A Colonel in the service of France, hath lately set out from Antibes to Bastia, in order to have a conference with General Paoli at Corte, on affairs of importance. Almost every action of that great General affords a proof of his wisdom or benevolence. The crew of a Genoese ship, laden with corn, which was wrecked on the coast of San Fiorenzo, have been received on shore, and treated with the utmost humanity."

Letters from Constance say, that an Architect of that City has invented a machine for the construction of bridges and causeways, by which sixteen men can do as much as two hundred. The Court of Germany, having caused trial of it to be made on the Danube, and being satisfied with its success, have rewarded the Inventor with 20,000 florins, and a medal of gold.

A number of high bred English horses and mares, are now buying up in Yorkshire, to be sent to the Island of Corsica.

Feb. 20. We hear that his Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester will shortly be appointed Governor General of the Isle of Man, and all the dependencies thereunto belonging.

Orders are given for augmenting the Royal regiment of artillery at Woolwich, to their full complement of men, an account of several draughts that are to be made early in the spring for foreign garrisons.

A humane member of a great assembly, we hear, intends bringing in a bill to prohibit under severe penalties all brutal diversions, such as cock-fighting, bull-bating, &c. &c. for the future.

'Tis said that the Irish house of Commons intend to distinguish Lord Townshend, on account of his generous behaviour in supporting the offensive bill, with more extraordinary honours than have hitherto been paid to the most popular chief Governor.

Several prosecutions, we hear, are depending in the courts against foreign Agents, for inveigling our Artificers out of the kingdom.

They write from Leghorn, that a violent shock of an earthquake lately happened in that island of Candy, in the Archipelago, which destroyed upwards of an hundred houses.

A bet of one thousand guineas was actually made this week, that there would be, at least, fifty Nabobs (as the gentlemen who have made their fortunes in the East-Indies, are now pleasantly, and perhaps not unemphatically, called) elected and admitted members of the next ensuing parliament.

Feb. 27. It is confidently said the Count de Guerchy, late Ambassador to this court, poisoned himself, from the ill situation of his finances.

Feb. 27. They write from the Hague, that a triple alliance, offensive and defensive, is now forming in the North, between the Courts of Sweden, Denmark, and Prussia.

Constantinople, Dec. 19. On the representations of the Ambassador from G. Britain, a ship of that nation, which was detained in the Arsenal, has been released. The Dragoman of the French Consul at Cairo, named Roboli, arrived lately in this capital, and is now in prison at Bagne; we know not what will be the consequence of this affair. The chief Officer of our Customs died here, the 12th instant, of the plague.

Piombino, Dec. 30. The weather has been stormy for several days; and this, we suppose, retards the arrival of the 800 Jesuits, who have been expelled the kingdom of Sicily.

Constantinople, Jan. 2. The Grand Signor has given his eldest daughter, a Princess of seven years old, to the Nizanji Bahi; and yesterday the Grand Vizir clothed him with the Pellice, and declared him son-in-law to the Sultan. This young Princess is the widow of the late Vizir, who was beheaded three years ago at Meteline. [Gazette.]

Civita Vecchia, Jan. 15. According to letters from Ancona, a large bark, with Jesuits from Sicily, was lately driven out to sea from the coast of Dalmatia, and no news has been since heard of her.

Berlin, Feb. 2. We just now learn, that his Majesty, through his wonted munificence, has made a gift of 300,000 crowns to the inhabitants of Silesia. This money is to be divided among such as have been reduced to the necessity of contracting debts and mortgaging their estates; and the Sieur Carmer, President of the Regency of Breslau, lately nominated Minister of State, is charged with the distribution of it.

Monaco, Feb. 13. By the treaty of peace with Corsica, it is said that the Genoese are to acknowledge that island to be free and independent; that the Corsicans are to evacuate Capraia in favour of the Genoese; and that the port of Bonifacio is to be in possession of the Corsicans, on condition of their making an annual payment to Genoa of 30,000 livres.
